

HARBIN HENGWEI TECHNOLOGY CO.,LTD

Contact: Daphne Tel:+86-18345168420

We chat: 1322468646 Web: <http://hrbhw.en.alibaba.com>

Wilson Frame Prone Operating Table For Back Surgery

Overview:

Wilson Frame Prone equipment use carbon fiber material, which is a new radiolucent spine frame for spinal surgery. Wilson frame can be used in CT, MRI and non-magnetic film.

Wilson frame prone can satisfy patient's various kinds of crooking and stretching the operation needs, which make operation more convenient and helps restoration and fixation after the operation.

The arc templates support on the both sides: Spine surgery frame can make the chest and the belly of the patient of operation avoid oppression and reduce surgical blood loss.

Convenient to adjust : The support width, head holding distance, height, foot cushion position can suit all kinds of patients' body sizes.

Scope of application : Wilson frame prone is widely used in various kinds of posterior surgery of backbone , cervical vertebra and rump bone vertebra.

Technical Parameter:

Max Support Length: ≥ 70 cm

Opening Support Surface Distant: 0-19cm

Flexion Angle of Spine: -15° - -75°

Adjusted Chest Pad Width: 0-80mm

The Max Bearing Capacity of Chest Pad: 135kg